VOLUME LII.

IRONTON, MO., THURSDAY, MARCH 6, 1919.

NUMBER 40.

From Sergeant John Q. Stuart.

Dear Editor—I have started at last on the letter long promised you; as an expression of my appreciation for the county paper during the time I have been in Europe. I will not say France for I have been in four of the different European countries, not including the State of Luxemburg, since landing June 21, 1918.

I think I appreciated the paper most when lying in the trenches, just opposite Fritz, when the orders were very strict to keep in your trench during the day. The time seemed to pass quicker and the "keeping down" did not seem so monotonous if we had something to read.

There was one thing I regretted extremely; I being the only Yank from Iron County in my company, and the only one in my battalion after my friend, James Dutcher, was wounded and sent to the hospital; that it seemed too valuable for me to peruse the pages and no one else receive benefit from it and toss it to one side. I especially enjoyed the news from near home in the lines of Angelo, Lonely One, and Timothy Hay, I think was the correspondent from Goodland.

I also wish to extend my sympathy to the bereaved ones of Private Russell Riggs, who made the Supreme Sacrifice for his and our country, in our fight in the Argonne. Bob Marshall—I noted the sketch from his letter in the REGISTER telling of his wound in July, and I hope he received no more.

I was very sorry indeed to hear of Russell Riggs going down. I never happened to meet him over here, though the Second Division, which includes the 5th and 6th Marines, was our left flank Division in both the St. Mihiel and Argonne offensives.

Both Divisions went "over the top" together, viz., the 2d and 8th, on November 1st, and was still in the lines when the armistice was signed.

I have been here at Châtillon since December 28, 1918, attending the I. W. S. School closed Wednesday and we will be leaving Saturday for our respective companies in Germany.

Châtillon is a very interesting place in a historical way. The Germans invaded this place in 1870. I visited the ancient Ruines du Chateau des Ducs and du Cimetiere St. Voales, also the church where St. Bernard's Chapel is located, dating back to the third century. St. Bernard was murdered on the altar of this church.

There are many places of interest in France and Germany if one could only visit them, but as you know our "Mission Over There" was far different from sightseeing in the tourist's way.

Thanking you again, and hoping to see the U. S. soon,

I remain,

SERGEANT JOHN Q. STUART,
Co. M, 354th Infantry, 89th Division,
A. P. O. No. 761, Châtillon-sur-Seine,
France, January 29, 1919.

From Oscar and Harvey Hurst.

(To Mrs. Mattie Hurst.)

My Dear Mother—I will drop you a few lines to-night to let you know that I am well and I hope this will find you all the same. Well, it is still raining, I don't think there has been a single day but what it has rained in over a month.

When have you heard from Harve? I haven't heard from him in two weeks. I think he has gone home and I hope he has. I am sure getting tired of this country. I bet Harve has got all the soldiering he wants now. I would love to have seen him, but didn't get to.

It seems like it has been ten years since I left home and I have had a lot of hot times and experience since I have been in France, but I don't think it will be long till we will get back to the dear old U. S. A., and the quickest way is too slow for me.

I guess you are glad to have the girls at home as it won't be so lonesome for you.

I am working this week on the barns making feed troughs for the horses, and it makes me think of times when I used to patch up around the barn at home.

I will close for this time. Hoping to hear from you all soon, and to be with you in a couple of months.

Your loving son,

OSCAR HURST,
Co. D, 110 Regiment, Engineers, A. E. F., Lerouville, France.
January 3, 1919.

Dear Sister—I will write you a few lines this morning, as I am well and hope you all are the same.

Well, I'm out of the hospital now, and on my way home. I was in the hospital more than two months. I've been here four weeks now. I went from the Red Cross Hospital to a hospital in Paris and came here from there. My papers are all fixed up to sail to the States; we were to leave today, but we got held over for some cause. We will leave some time this week. I'm in class B, too, so I will be home soon. Surely will be glad when we leave France for old America. I never have heard from home yet. I wrote home when I first got wounded but never got an answer.

I will be with you all soon as all the boys from the hospitals are returning to the States; I've got my pack all ready to leave.

Your brother,

From Wm. Lawson.

Dear Mother—How are you? I am in good health and feeling fine. How is everything getting along at home? I am working every day here in camp. There is lots of work to do in a camp here in France.

We have a Y. M. C. A. here in our camp for our benefit, and we also get to go to town occasionally. Everything is sure high; a pair of shoes sells from $10 to $15. A fellow can get away with his money here quicker than he can in the states. I am going to try to save what I get, so when I get back to the States I can have a good time. The French civilians on the streets are as thick as in our cities, don't look like that there is a war going on a few hundred miles away.

The weather is very pleasant, but it rains often and the mud is some deep; with all of that and some times worse, the war work is going on steady.

The country is mountainous around the camp, in fact, the whole of France is hills and mountains. It is the prettiest and most picturesque country I ever saw. But for all that, me for the hills of Missouri.

Did you get my picture of the Company I sent to you from Camp Johnston? Have you got the letters I sent you a while back?

Your son,

PVT. WM. E. LAWSON,

A Thorough Test.

One to Convince Most Skeptical Reader.

The test of time is the test that counts. Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action.

The following case is typical: Ironton residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete. Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

Anderson Rust, Ironton, says I was badly in need of something that would relieve me of lameness and aching in my back. The kidney secretions were so frequent in passage, especially at night, and sometimes accompanied by pain. A short use of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at the Arcadia Valley Drug Co., entirely cured me.

NO TROUBLE SINCE.
Over three years later Mr. Rust said: "I have never had any return of kidney complaint and am as strong in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills now as ever."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Rust had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Letter From Monty R. Black.

January 26-27, 1919.

Kind Friends and Relatives—This being Sunday, I feel that I've plenty of time to write you a lengthy letter, so will try to describe life in Germany. As I find it so different from what I expected, I feel sure I can write an interesting letter.

I am with my Company, which is in Erang, Germany, which is a small town, situated on the Moryelle River Valley.

If I were speaking to you personally, I am sure one of the first things you would inquire about would be the financial standing of Germany at present. From what information I can pick up, I should say that the people as a rule are living well, except that bread and meat are scarce. But these articles of the food supply are rationed to the families in sufficient quantities to sustain life. Everybody seems to be well clad with respectable clothing. Even the old form of German Government is now done away with, and the German people seem to realize just what sort of Government will be for them, yet everybody seems to go ahead with his general labor, as if nothing unusual were happening.

Another thing I am sure you are interested in knowing about is "As to how the Germans seem to regard American soldiers," who are stationed among the private German homes, and in their best houses and rooms. They also regard such as nothing unusual and even treat us as members of their families. Most every one lives in a modern home, equipped with electric lights and other conveniences, which we as soldiers appreciate very much. So different from life on the battlefields in war ridden France, is our present situation that most of us feel most at home.

For two months while on the front, we did not see lights at night, because lights were sure to give our position away, which would have given the Germans a chance to blow us to pieces with their mean artillery. So now we take advantage of the beautifully lighted houses, and sit by the fires which the old folks build for us, and just imagine how we read of American wonders and achievements.

You might wish to know how the German people stand with regard to political affairs. To answer, I must say I am not very well posted upon the political questions, but will answer as far as I have learned. There are several factions among the people of different localities of this country. In this part of Germany, the majority of the people want a Government to be established and ruled by their church, and then there are others much in favor of a Socialist Government. As a whole I am most sure the people are tired of their old method of Government, and are longing for a republican form of democracy.

I should say something of the industrial matters which you no doubt would like to hear about.

First, I note this is a wonderful agricultural country, and the people grow an abundant supply of food products every year.

Second, There seems to be much iron mined, and great quantities of coal are mined.

The people are looking to the U. S. A. for methods that may insure a continued development of German Industries. Such being the case, I am sure there is a great responsibility resting upon our officials, who are now taking part in the peace conference at Paris, France. Because they are not only aiding in bringing about a world peace, but are looked to by our past enemy as real guides for their future welfare.

While writing my Company Commander presents me with a pass, and leave for a trip to Trier, Germany, so I will not finish my letter at the present time, and will try to finish it by describing my visit to that City, of which so much ancient history is written.

I've just returned from Trier, and must say I enjoyed the trip very much.

First, I will say that I will not try to write all that I learned while there, because I've not the time to do so. Trier is an ancient City and also a modern town. It is situated on the Moryelle River, which is one of the most beautiful streams and valleys that I've viewed since in Europe. In fact it is generally supposed to be the most beautiful valley in Europe. The City, as I understand it, was built in the second century by the Romans. They had evidently selected the situation because of its natural advantages. Thus, the City of Trier was the gate way through which they passed from Gaul to the Rhine Land.

I passed through the ancient gate which the Romans built shortly after Christ reigned on earth. The gate was the only way through which a traveling man could enter the City at that time. So as I passed through the gate way, I noted with much admiration the structure and its massive walls, and wondered how those Romans ever built such structures without mortar or machinery, such as is used in this advanced age. After going through the gateway, which bears such an ancient history, I found the City to be full of stores of all kinds, which I found to be modern, and well stocked with most every thing that one might wish to call for.

But the most wonderful thing to be admired in Trier, or considering the time it was built, I am most sure the world holds no greater wonder of Art and sculpture than is presented in the old Cathedral that was built in the second century advance. As I gazed upon those beautiful carvings and paintings which are so life like, as to cause me to be astonished, because I am most sure no architect of modern times shall ever be able to compete with such art as is presented in that old Cathedral.

I was so interested in viewing the old buildings of so many years ago, that I wished only to view the works of the old Romans, and not the works of Modern times.

After viewing many of the old ruins I am convinced that the Romans must have been a very energetic class of people. You no doubt may be tired of my description of my sight seeing in Germany. But I hope you shall not expect me to tell you any of the disadvantages that exist here, nor when we shall return to the states.

You may ask of some of the boys, and how they are getting along. I've only met Herbert Martin Spitzmiller, John Hilloman, and heard from Claud Tinker, all of whom are, as I think, O. K. Well Ta! Ta! and good wishes to all.

Pain

Here is a message to suffering women, from Mrs. Kathryn Edwards, of R. F. D. 4, Washington Court House, Ohio. "I am glad to tell, and have told many women, what I suffered before I knew of Cardui and the great benefit to be derived from this remedy. A few years ago I became practically helpless."

Card-u-i

The Woman's Tonic

"I was very weak," Mrs. Edwards goes on to say, "and could not stoop without suffering great pain. . . . Nothing seemed to help me until I heard of Cardui and began the use of it. . . . I gradually gained my strength. . . . I am now able to do all my work." If you need a tonic take Cardui. It is for women. It acts gently and reliably and will probably help you as it helped this lady.
